lor had reached the age of seventy years, and had retired from the ministry. He had usually spent the winters in Florida. He was taken ill while at the hotel in St. Petersburg, a few days ago and was removed to the hospital in that city.

Rev. Dr. Taylor had served as pastor of some of the leading Methodist churches in the State. He was the oldest member of Paris Lodge F. & A. M. No. 2. He married Miss Mollie Price, daughter of Mrs. Cassandra Price, of Jessamine county, who preceded him to the grave many years ago.

The body was brought to Nicholasville and taken to the home of Mrs. F. W. Noland. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in that city at eleven o'clock Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. E. L. Southgate, assisted by Rev. Dr. E. G. Mann and Rev. W. S. Maxwell. The pall-bearers were the stewards of the Nicholasville church, W. A. Sears, J. B. Sears, Dr. T. G. Cook, J. T. Edwards, J. H. Boner, H. B. Campbell, J. H. Turner, J. B. Bryant and R. L. Cooper. The interment followed in the Nicholasville Cemetery.

YERKES.

—The funeral of Prof. William L. The services were conducted by Rev. George H. Harris, of Versailles, the former rector, in the presence of one of the largest concourses ever assembled here at a funeral, attesting the popularity and esteem in which Mr. Yerkes was held.

As a mark of respect to the memory of Mr. Yerkes, the business houses of the city were closed during the hours of the funeral and burial. The interment took place in the Paris Cemetery. The active pall-bearers were: John Woodford, James Woodford, Chenault Woodford, Woodford Spears, N. F. Brent and Frank P. Kiser. Harry Brent, John T. Hinton, Jos. W. Davis and John M. VanMeter. An especially touching feature of the interment was the presence at the cemetery of over two hundred former pupils of Mr. Yerkes, those who, following the precepts and good example of their preceptor, had made their marks in the business world. They came to attest by their presence their high regard and esteem for a man whose life had been one for good in the community that had honored him, and by doing so, honored itself.
